

GDC Rajpora holds series of Lectures on “Narcotic Use- A Legal Perspective”

A series of Guest Lectures on the theme “Narcotic Use- A Legal Perspective” were hosted by the NCORD Cell GDC Rajpora in the conference Room on 30-11-2024. A team of legal experts from district Court Pulwama including Advocate Mehraj-Ud-Din Wani; Deputy Chief Legal Aid Defense Counsel and Advocate Ashaq Hussain, Assistant Legal Aid Defense Counsel Pulwama participated in this programme and deliberated on the subject.

The event started with recitation of verses of Glorious Quran by a student namely Mursaleen Shabir. Prof Gh Mohiuddin welcomed the guests and appreciated their selfless efforts for disseminating awareness among the youth drugs and narcotic use. Advocate Mehraj-Ud-Din Wani described the concept of drug addiction and Narcotics and how an ordinary person who is innocent falls prey to the menace of narcotics. He also shed light on NDPS Act 1985 and different laws invoked on narcotic users and suppliers which empower the authorities to seize property of drug suppliers and imprison them for a long period of time.

Advocate Asahaq Hussain talked about Drugs and Cosmetics Act, reasons for drug and narcotic use and preventive strategies to dissuade people from falling prey to this curse. He also explained the terms Golden Crescent and Golden Triangle, the regions wherefrom drugs spread to other parts of the globe. The programme included an open Question/Answer session in which students and staff interacted with the invited speakers and put forward different queries. Dr Mudasir Ahmad Qazi proposed formal vote of thanks while Prof Gh Mohiuddin, HOD English, hosted the proceedings of the event.

Sd/-

Convener

NCORD Cell